

PAINT&LIFE ARTIST COMMUNITY

Create, share, and grow.

A guide for artists exploring Paint&Life, newly joining the community, or already using the Artist Portal.

Approved artists receive login details separately by individual email.

ARTIST PORTAL GUIDE / JULY 2026

Discover what being a Paint&Life artist includes.

Artists may apply to join the community at no cost. Once approved and invited, the Artist Portal provides a private workspace for opportunities, approvals, services, financial records, and communication with Paint&Life.

Sales & statements

Review activity, artist amounts, payments, adjustments, and rental income as those services become available.

Print options

Submit new print products, follow approval, and respond when Paint&Life requests a change.

Consignment

Review original artworks, prices, terms, and electronically accept consignment agreements.

Creative services

Request printing or photography, review proofs and invoices, and keep revisions together.

Profile

Update your portrait, biography, website, and social links for your public artist page.

Messages

Communicate with Paint&Life about reviews, services, agreements, and account questions.

From application to your first opportunity.

Joining starts with a free artist application. Paint&Life reviews the submission, contacts selected artists, and sends approved artists a private portal invitation.

01 APPLY

Submit the free artist application and sample work.

02 PORTFOLIO REVIEW

Paint&Life reviews fit, presentation, and opportunities.

03 APPROVAL

Selected artists receive confirmation and next steps.

04 PORTAL INVITATION

Set your password using the private invitation.

05 COMPLETE PROFILE

Add your portrait, biography, website, and social links.

06 SUBMIT WORK

Begin with artwork, a print option, consignment, or a service request.

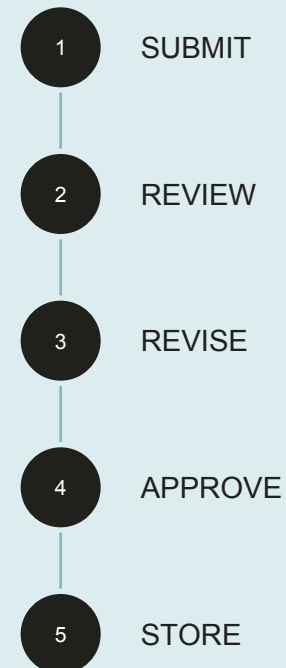

Application is free. Submission does not automatically guarantee acceptance or representation.

Offer prints when the timing is right.

You may also upload a print-only source. Paint&Life reviews image quality, material, size, production cost, and final store pricing before publication.

Most artworks currently shown on the Paint&Life site are eligible for a print option.

- Submit: choose the source, size, material, edition type, suggested price, and storefront images.
- Review: Paint&Life checks production quality, cost, shipping, presentation, and margin.
- Changes: if revisions are requested, open the request in My Portfolio, update it, and resubmit.
- Approval: approved print products appear in your portfolio and may be published in the Store.
- Later updates: request information or image changes without creating a separate email trail.

Originals can now be represented and sold.

Original artwork offered through Paint&Life requires a consignment agreement. This creates a shared record before the work is offered for sale and keeps the artwork's status clear throughout the relationship.

- Artwork record: title, medium, dimensions, images, price, condition, and current location.
- Agreement: term, commission, responsibilities, included artworks, and any special conditions.
- Artist acceptance: review and electronically accept the agreement in your portal.
- Ongoing visibility: see which works are included and follow their current status.
- Clear history: retain a record even when the artwork is stored, exhibited, rented, or returned.

Before publication

- ☒ Artwork confirmed
- ☒ Terms reviewed
- ☒ Images approved
- ☒ Agreement accepted
- ☒ Store visibility set

Printing and artwork photography.

Creative Services supports both custom fine-art printing and professional artwork photography. Requests, estimates, proofs, revisions, invoices, payments, and receipts remain connected to the project.

FINE-ART PRINTING

- Upload a source or use a Paint&Life artwork
- Choose size, material, quantity, and finishing
- Review the proof and request a revision if needed

ARTWORK PHOTOGRAPHY

- Request studio or on-location photography
- Add image delivery preferences and optional USB
- Review previews and keep the service record

Sustainable tools. A stronger artist share.

Artists can begin with up to 50 combined artwork and print-product records at no recurring cost. Larger portfolios can choose a paid plan. This keeps the entry point accessible while supporting review time, image storage, product work, and long-term records.

FREE

50 artworks + prints

No recurring charge

STUDIO

100 artworks + prints

$9.99/mo or $100/yr

PROFESSIONAL

500 artworks + prints

$14.99/mo or $150/yr

STANDARD REPRESENTED SALES

Artist 70% / Paint&Life 30%

Compared with many traditional arrangements returning approximately 50-60% to the artist, the Paint&Life standard is simpler and gives artists a larger share.

Keep information current and conversations together.

STATEMENTS

Review sales, rental income, payments, adjustments, and the artist amount recorded for each statement period.

MY PROFILE

Update your portrait, biography, website, Instagram, Facebook, and other links. Approved public information flows directly to your artist page.

MESSAGES

Communicate with Paint&Life about print reviews, services, consignment agreements, statements, and account questions.

Clear expectations protect the artist and the work.

COPYRIGHT

Unless a separate written agreement says otherwise, artists retain copyright. Paint&Life uses images and produces approved prints only as authorized.

PRICING

Artists may suggest pricing. Paint&Life confirms final store pricing after production, presentation, shipping, and margin review.

STATEMENTS & PAYOUTS

Sales, adjustments, artist amounts, and payment status appear in Statements. The applicable agreement controls payout timing.

CANCELLATIONS & REFUNDS

A cancellation, return, or refund may adjust the recorded sale and artist payout.

CONSIGNED ARTWORK

Location, condition, transportation, insurance, and return responsibilities are documented in the consignment agreement.

PLAN COUNTING

One artwork record or one print edition counts as one product; physical edition copies and approved size options do not count separately.

Your signed agreement and final statement remain the controlling business records. Use Messages whenever a record or responsibility needs clarification.

WHAT'S NEXT

The portal will continue to grow.

Rental services are being expanded. Premium My Archive tools for personal inventory, location history, exhibitions, and calendars are in development, along with optional artist websites connected directly to portfolio records.

Features may be introduced gradually and enabled for selected artists while they are tested.
